Numb. 1874

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 1. to Monday November 5. 1683.

Whitehall, November 3.

THe following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty, who received them very Graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliff, Recorder, Capital and Inferior Burgeſſes, and alſo the Grand-Jury of Your Majeſties antient Borough of Bergevenny, at the General Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid Borough, the eighth day of October, Anno Dom. Caroli Secundi nunc Angliæ, &c. 35. Annoq; Dom. 1683.

Dread Soveraign,

WE Your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, ſeriouſly reflecting on the exceeding great Felicity which we and all Your Majeſties People have enjoyed (ever ſince Your Majeſties moſt Happy Reſtauration) by Your Majeſties moſt Gracious Reign over us; cannot hear, without Amazement and Abhorrency, that a Trayterous and Bloody Conſpiracy hath been plotted and contrived againſt the Life of Your Sacred Majeſty, and the Life of Your Deareſt Brother James Duke of York; We cannot without Aſtoniſhment but admire, and with hearts and hands lifted up, muſt praiſe the goodneſs of Heaven, for the timely and Happy Diſcovery of ſo Impious and Horrid a Machination, which (had it ſucceeded) muſt of neceſſity have involved the whole Nation in Confuſion, Blood, and Ruine. We ſhall therefore humbly make inceſſant Prayers to the great God of Heaven, the Protector of Kings, that he will be pleaſed, of his infinite Wiſdom to continue his Mercies to us, by being always propitious to Your Majeſty in all Your Undertakings: And we humbly beſeech Your Majeſty to give us leave to add this further Aſſurance, that we are all unanimouſly reſolved to ſtand by, and defend Your Sacred Majeſty, Your Heirs and Lawful Succeſſors, to the laſt Extremity of our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is Deareſt unto us, againſt all Fanatical Rebels, Traytors, and Conſpirators whatſoever. The which we ſhall at all times, and upon all Occaſions, be in the greateſt readineſs to perform; as holding it our bounden duty, in all Emergencies, and upon all Opportunities, to ſhew our ſelves,

Dread Sir,

Your Majeſties moſt Loyal, moſt Dutiful, and moſt Obedient Subjects.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Young men of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, the third day of Sept. 1683.

Great Sir,

OUR obſcure and private Condition makes us Strangers to the Majeſty of Kings, and the Sacredneſs of their Perſons, poſſeſſeth us with an awful fear, to offend their Greatneſs; but like the Dumb Son of Croeſus, when our Soveraign hath been in Danger of Aſſaſſination, we muſt cry out againſt the Horridneſs of the Attempt, and return our Thanks to Almighty God, for delivering Your Sacred Majeſty and Royal Brother from the wicked Conſpiracy told us in Your Gracious Declaration; the Horror whereof fills our minds with Deteſtation of all Fanatical and Diabolical Plots of inhumane Villains void of Piety and Morality; whoſe Treaſons are direct Affronts to the Omnipotent, who is the Guardian of his Vicegerent.

We bluſh to read the Records which atteſt Your Godlike Father's being by uſurped Power denied entrance into this his own Town which fatal Action drew the greateſt Trains of Miſeries after it. We, though then unborn, lament the wickedneſs thereof, and preſent our juſt Abhorrence of all Deſigns againſt Your Majeſties Perſon and Government. And now offer the Firſt Fruits of our Lives with all our Powers, to defend Your Majeſty and Government againſt all Aſſociating Abſoloms and Achitophels; humbly preſuming to add this Petition to our Litany, From Reſtleſs Pettiſh Whig-Zealots, Idolizers of a Common-wealth, endeavouring to ruffle us into the Savage Rebellious State of Forty One, Good Lord deliver us! And,

That it would pleaſe him to preſerve Your Sacred Majeſty in the Higheſt Glory of Your Anceſtors, that Your Crown may flouriſh long on Your Royal Head: that this Monarchy may be immortal, the lineal Deſcent unbroken: That we may always have Illuſtrious Princes of Your Majeſties Royal Family, to ſway the Scepter of this Realm; as the daily Prayer of Your Majeſties moſt Loyal and moſt Dutiful Subjects.

There have been likewiſe preſented to His Majeſty very Loyal Addreſſes from the following Counties and Corporations in Ireland, which His Majeſty received with his wonted Grace and Goodneſs.

FRom the Lord-Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizen of the Antient and Loyal City of Dublin.

From the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the antient Town and County of Drogheda.

From the Soveraign, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and Commons of Kinſale.

From the Governor, High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury and Gentry of the County of Galloway, at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, Sept. 3. 1683.

From the Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Array, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen and Free-holders of the County of Cavan.

From the Juſtices of the Peace, and the Grand-Jury for the City and County of London-Derry, Sept. 18. 1683.

Rome, Octob. 6. The Pope upon the firſt news he had of the raiſing of the Siege of Vienna, ſent 100000 Crowns to the Emperor; and has ſince ordered a like Sum to be ſent to the King of Poland; and has declared, That he will contribute for his part 40000 Crowns a month towards the carrying on the War againſt the Turks. And the Cardinals, and many other Perſons of Quality, do likewiſe give conſiderable Sums, which are paid into the Apoſtolick Chamber; ſo that according to all appearance a great Fond will be eſtabliſhed for this Service. The Sieur Talevi, who brought hither the great Standard of Mahomet, which the King of Poland took at the Battel of Vienna, and ſent as a Preſent to the Pope, took his leave two days agone in order to his return for Hungary.

Genoua, Octob. 20. The Spaniſh Gallies remain ſtill at Porta Spetia, expecting there the arrival of the Armada, which it's ſaid are driven by bad Weather to Palermo. Our Letters from Milan of the 13th Inſtant told us, That the Troops in that Dutchy were marching to the Camp which the Count de Melgar has cauſed to be marked out for them on the Po; and that his Excellency has likewiſe given Orders for the preparing a Train of Artillery.

Marſeilles, Octob. 29. The news of this Place is, That Monſieur du Quesne is retired from before Algiers, having left ſome of his lighteſt Ships to Cruiſe on that Coaſt; That theſe are to be very ſuddainly relieved by Monſieur de Ley, who will have a Squadron of ſeven or eight Men of War, which is now fitting out at Thoulon: That Monſieur du Quesne is gone for Malta, and that from thence he is to ſtand over for Tripoly.

Warſaw, Octob. 8. The Troops of Lithuania are on their march for Hungary to joyn the King of Poland; and we are told that above 1000 Gentlemen of that Dutchy have reſolved to follow with four Men each,
